Game at a Glance

VMI at Maryland

Shipley Field at Bob "Turtle" Smith Stadium

Pitching Matchup:
(MD) LHP Adam Kolarek (0-0, 0.00, 3.0 IP)
(VMI) LHP Jason Farley (0-0, 0.00, 2.0 IP)

Leading Off...

• Maryland is coming off its first weekend series at home in which Delaware took two of three from the Terps. Inclement weather last Friday forced a postponement and a doubleheader Saturday, which the Terps and Blue Hens split. Delaware took the first game but Maryland bounced back with a 10-6 victory in game two, led by stong pitching performances from starter Eric Potter and relievers Ian Schwalenberg and Dan Gentzler. Potter struck out six in 4.2 innings and shut down Delaware batters after settling down from a three-run first.

Last Time Out...

Sander Beck pitched seven splendid innings for Maryland but the Terps were undone by a crippling fifth inning in which Delaware got all the runs it would need to win.

After Beck allowed the first two batters - Steve Ulaky and Josh Dean - to reach base in the top of the fifth, Delaware's Dave Anderson hit a hard liner to third that was caught by David Poutier. Poutier attempted to throw to second to double off Ulaky, but his throw sailed into right field, allowing Ulaky to advance to third. With runners on the corners and a full count to batter D.J. Long, Beck threw a wild pitch that walked Long and allowed Ulaky to score. Maryland catcher Jack Cleary attempted to throw out Dean at third, but his throw went into right field and Dean scored to make it 2-1 Delaware.

The Blue Hens added an insurance run in the seventh on an RBI single by Carlos Alonso and in the eighth on a home run by Ulaky.

Maryland took a 1-0 lead in the second inning with a small-ball approach after Matt Marquis led off the inning with a double. Marquis, who went 5-for-12 on the weekend, advanced to third on a sacrifice bunt by Cleary and scored on a Mike Rozak groundout.

The Terps had a chance to expand their lead in the third when they loaded the bases with no outs, but Delaware starting pitcher Michael Londino recorded back-to-back strikeouts and got Marquis to ground into an inning-ending fielder's choice.

In the ninth, Maryland had the tying run at the plate with one out after Cleary singled and Rozak reached on an error, but Jon Wilson lined out and pinch hitter Tyler Bennett grounded out to end the threat and the game.

Beck (0-2, 4.91 ERA) struck out five and allowed just two earned runs in seven innings to take the loss. The sophomore gave up just one hit through four innings, keeping Delaware batters off-kilter with a consistent fastball and a hard-breaking curve.

Tracking the Terrapins...

• The Terps are being led by three players batting over .400 this season. Redshirt freshman Jack Cleary has started all six games at catcher and is 7-for-17 (.412) in those games. Matt Marquis, a transfer from Vanderbilt, made his first appearances for the Terps last weekend, going 5-for-12 (.417) with a home run and three runs scored. Brandon Padula, meanwhile, leads the team with a .471 batting average. The junior went 5-for-10 in the weekend series against Delaware and is 8-for-17 on the season.

• Maryland's pitching staff is currently led by a senior and a sophomore. Dan Gentzler, the teams closer, has not come on in a save situation yet, but has made three appearances and is yet to give up an earned run. Sander Beck, meanwhile, has pitched effectively in two starts, with a few mistakes costing him losses in both games. The right-hander has a 4.91 ERA and is tied for the team lead with 11 strikeouts.

About the Keydets...

• VMI enters the contest with a 6-0 mark after home sweeps of Bucknell and Lafayette. The Keydets were picked to finish sixth out of 10 teams in the Big South Conference by league coaches.

• The Keydets are led offensively by two players - Jacob Morley and Tanner Biagini - batting over .500. Morley is hitting .556 in six starts while Biagini has a 1.050 slugging percentage aided by three home runs and two doubles.

SERIES HISTORY: Maryland leads the all-time series with VMI 27-11.
